ISAC COACHES CODE OF CONDUCT

- * Remember that young people participate for pleasure and that winning is only part of the fun.
- * Never ridicule or berate a young player for making a mistake or not coming first.
- * Be reasonable in your demands on players' time, energy and enthusiasm.
- * Operate within the rules and spirit of your sport and teach your players to do the same.
- * Ensure that the time players spend with you is a positive experience. All young people are deserving of equal attention and opportunities.
- * Avoid overplaying the talented players. The average players need and deserve equal time.
- * Display control, respect and professionalism to all involved with the sport. This includes opponents, coaches, officials, administrators, the media, parents and spectators. Encourage your players to do the same.
- * Any physical contact with a young person should be appropriate to the situation and necessary for the player's skill development.
- * Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.

ISAC PLAYERS CODE OF CONDUCT

- * Play by the rules.
- * Never argue with an official. If you disagree, have your captain or coach approach the official during a break or after the competition.
- * Control your temper. Verbal abuse of officials, other players or spectators is never acceptable. Deliberately distracting or provoking an opponent are not tolerable or permitted behaviors in any sport.
- * Work equally hard for yourself and/or your team. Your team's performance will benefit and so will you.
- * Be a good sport. Applaud all good plays whether they are made by your team or the opposition.
- * Treat all participants in your sport as you like to be treated. Do not bully or take unfair advantage of another competitor.
- * Cooperate with your coach, teammates and opponents. Without them there would be no competition.
- * Participate for your own enjoyment and benefit, not just to please parents, friends or coaches.
- * Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
