Coaches Code of Conduct

- * Remember that young people participate for pleasure and that winning is only part of the fun.
- * Never ridicule or berate a young player for making a mistake or not coming first.
- * Be reasonable in your demands on players' time, energy and enthusiasm.
- * Operate within the rules and spirit of your sport and teach your players to do the same.
- * Ensure that the time players spend with you is a positive experience. All young people are deserving of equal attention and opportunities.
- * Avoid overplaying the talented players. The average players need and deserve equal time.
- * Ensure that equipment and facilities meet safety standards and are appropriate to the age and ability of all the players.
- * Display control, respect and professionalism to all involved with the sport. This includes opponents, coaches, officials, administrators, the media, parents and spectators. Encourage your players to do the same.
- * Show concern and caution toward sick and injured players. Follow the advice of a physician when determining whether an injured player is ready to recommence training or competition.
- * Obtain appropriate qualifications and keep up to date with the latest coaching practices and the principles of growth and development of young people.
- * Any physical contact with a young person should be appropriate to the situation and necessary for the player's skill development.
- * Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.

Players Code of Conduct

- Play by the rules.
- Never argue with an official. If you disagree, have your captain or coach approach the official during a break or after the competition.
- Control your temper. Verbal abuse of officials, other players or spectators is never acceptable. Deliberately distracting or provoking an opponent are not tolerable or permitted behaviors in any sport.
- Work equally hard for yourself and/or your team. Your team's performance will benefit and so will you.
- Be a good sport. Applaud all good plays whether they are made by your team or the opposition.
- Treat all participants in your sport as you like to be treated. Do not bully or take unfair advantage of another competitor.
- Cooperate with your coach, teammates and opponents. Without them there would be no competition.
- Participate for your own enjoyment and benefit, not just to please parents, friends or coaches.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.

Parents Code of Conduct

- Remember that your children participate in sport for their enjoyment, not yours.
- Encourage your children to participate, do not force them.
- Focus on the child's efforts and performance rather than on the winning and losing.
- Encourage children always to play according to the rules and to settle disagreements without resorting to hostility or violence.
- Never ridicule or yell at a child for making a mistake or losing a competition.
- Remember that children learn best by example. Appreciate good performances and skillful plays by all participants.
- Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from sporting activities.
- Respect officials' decisions and teach children to do likewise.
